

CELEBRITY ROUNDUP: Next stop for 'Jersey Shore' guidos: South Beach, of course

Miami Herald, The (FL) - Wednesday, February 10, 2010

Break out the hair gel and tight clothing. The cast of MTV's Jersey Shore is headed our way.

According to Movieline.com, the cast will film Season 2 in South Beach. Rumor is they'll live in a house off of Lincoln Road. And yes, it will be fully equipped with a tanning bed, duck phone and lots of Italian flags. Filming is slated to start in May.

Talk that Jersey Shore might set up shop in sunny Miami started a week ago when TMZ.com uncovered a producer's letter to the owner of Mynt Lounge.

At that time, sources told the website that the network was deciding between Miami and nine other warm cities. Lucky us.

BABY NEWS

Cougar Town 's Courteney Cox and her Scream hubby David Arquette are considering adopting another child.

Arquette, 38, says the couple has been thinking about giving their 5-year-old daughter, Coco , a little sister or brother.

Cox, 45, underwent in-vitro fertilization for her first pregnancy at age 39.

"I don't know. I mean, it takes a lot for us to do it, so maybe adoption," Arquette, 38, said on The Bonnie Hunt Show . "Listen, I like practicing as much as possible! But it's hard. . . . I'm exhausted!"

FAMILY TRAGEDY

George Clinton Jr. , 50, the son of funk musician George Clinton , was found dead in his Tallahassee apartment on Monday.

Police say it appeared that Clinton had been dead for several days. No signs of foul play were found during the investigation. The cause of death is still undetermined.

REUNION

It's a mix of good and bad news for Charlie Sheen .

He was charged Monday with a felony count of menacing and two misdemeanors but the judge changed the terms of a restraining order so the Two and a Half Men star could return home with wife Brooke Mueller and their two sons.

The couple both appeared in an Aspen court for the hearing that stemmed from their Christmas Day brawl that sent Sheen to jail.

"Charlie and Brooke kissed and hugged and looked pretty happy to get beyond this hurdle," Mueller's lawyer Yale Galanter told People.com. "They are on their way home to Los Angeles together."

SWIMSUIT GAL

Meet Sport Illustrated's newest cover girl, Brooklyn Decker .

The North Carolina native and wife of tennis star Andy Roddick has been making the talk show rounds to promote her first time on the cover of the magazine's annual swimsuit issue.

"It's shocking and a dream come true," Decker told

People.com.

Her family was equally proud of her. "My mom cried."

The photos were shot in the Maldives by sports photographer Walter looss.

Page: A8

Provided By: The McClatchy Company

Location(s): Miami; REUNION; Los Angeles; North Carolina; Maldives

Personal Name(s): David Arquette; George Clinton Jr.; George Clinton; Charlie Sheen; Brooke Mueller; Andy Roddick

Record Number: 201002100100KNRIDDERFLMIAMIH_65109

Copyright (c) 2010 The Miami Herald