And finally the Baadshah will face the lens for this long-time-in-talks mega budget...

This directorial of Anubhav Sinha is heard to be kick starting its shooting schedule from coming March... And the lucky spot where this film is going to unfold is the sun kissed locales of Miami!

Although the film is to be like any other Superhero story, the production decided to give a bright beautiful feel instead of the usual gloomy city locales which are generally used in Superman or Spiderman flicks... Besides sources adds that, executive producer Prashant Shah was quite pleased with Miami when he was there for the shooting of Dostana.

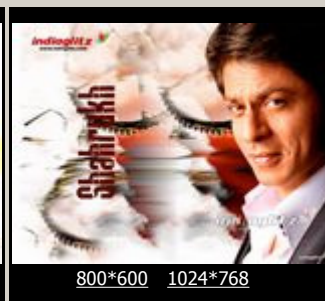

Sources revealed that the team will be put up at the Doubletree Grand in Coconut Grove, while the shooting will be carried around Maimi...
