Clear Channel's only Top 40 CHR station in Miami, FL (Y100) has officially hired DJ GQ as their newest member and On-Air DJ. His debut broadcast will be live from Off the Hookah in Downtown Fort Lauderdale on New Years Eve from 10pm thru 2am on New Years Day. This can possibly be more exciting than his sold out birthday bash in August at Club Revolution, which was headlined by close associate and platinum recording artist, DMX. More official news will be posted on Y100's website soon.

Currently DJ GQ remains active in the South Florida nightlife scene with weekly residencies at VooDoo Lounge on Wednesdays and Saturdays, Off The Hookah on Thursdays, and other residencies at Blue Martini and Mia in Miami. Last month the Film Recording & Entertainment Council (FREC) awarded DJ GQ the "DJ of the Year" award at their Star Gala, while in September he was the headlining DJ for DUB Custom Car Tour in Miami Beach, FL. As busy as he may seem, he is prepping to release his next mixtape in two weeks, "Let 'Em Know 21" hosted by Rick Ross.
